INTRODUCTION

Situation

You are a student who has just left school and has applied to take part in a voluntary aid programme for an organization called VWO. You are attending a briefing session about the programme before being interviewed.

The session is divided into two parts. In the first part, you will hear details of the aid programme and in the second part there will be a question-and-answer session. You need to take careful notes on both parts in order to prepare yourself for the interview.

Part I

In this part, you will hear details of the aid programme.

You will have 5 minutes to familiarize yourself with the note headings for Part I before the briefing session begins.

At the end of Part I, you will have 5 minutes to tidy up your answers.

Part II

In this part, you will hear a question-and-answer session.

You will have 3 minutes to familiarize yourself with the note headings for Part II before the session begins.

At the end of Part II, you will have 10 minutes to tidy up your answers.

Given below is the text of the instructions from the examination tape. These instructions are played just prior to the beginning of the examination questions.

USE OF ENGLISH — SECTION A — LISTENING TEST

Instructions to Candidates

Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination, Use of English Section A Listening Test 1998, Instructions to Candidates. You should have on your desk a Question-Answer Book. Do not open it until you are told to do so. I repeat, do not open the Question-Answer Book until you are told to do so.

Now write your Candidate Number, Centre Number and Seat Number in the boxes provided on your Question-Answer Book.

(15 seconds pause)

You are reminded that all examination materials will be played ONCE only. The test is divided into two parts: Part I and Part II. You should use a pencil to take notes on both parts. At the end of the examination, when you are told to stop, put down your pencil and close your Question-Answer Book. You may not leave the examination room until you are instructed to do so at the end of the examination session. No one may leave early. Put your hand up now if you have any difficulties. It is not possible to handle complaints after you have taken the test.

(10 seconds pause)

Now look at your Question-Answer Book. Check that your Question-Answer Book has no missing pages. Look for the words "End of Test" on the last page.

(10 seconds pause)

The test is about to begin. Keep your earphones on until you are told to take them off. Now look at page 1 of your Question-Answer Book.

(5 seconds pause)
